TRUST YOUR INSTINCTS: INVESTIGATION DISCOVERY LAUNCHES ORIGINAL SERIES SUSPICION

--The Six-Part Series Debuts Wednesday, September 2 at 10/9c--

(Silver Spring, Md.) – It’s human nature to question things – especially when your safety may be at risk – but when a grim suspicion turns into a horrid reality, it may be time to take things into your own hands. Investigation Discovery’s (ID) new series SUSPICION reveals the terrifying journeys of real people who suspected imminent danger and became fixated on finding the truth. From stalkers to criminal cover-ups and killers on the loose, the stories in SUSPICION start building suspense from the moment something feels amiss. Emotional first-person interviews detail the endless twists and turns that come with following a dangerous hunch, leaving viewers anxious to learn who the culprit is until the very end. Did I really just see that? Will anyone believe me? Am I imagining things? Can I trust anyone? Nothing is as it seems and everyone is a suspect. SUSPICION premiers on Wednesday, September 2 at 10/9c only on ID.

“An exciting addition to ID’s thrilling programming line-up, SUSPICION walks the fine line between who can be trusted, and who is a cold-blooded criminal,” said Kevin Bennett, general manager of Investigation Discovery. “This series journeys viewers through a minefield of unease that could explode into real danger at any given moment.”

The premiere episode, airing September 2 at 10/9c, features dedicated nurse Amy Loughren. When patients in her care start to die under mysterious circumstances, Loughren seems to be the only one interested in investigating the deadly pattern, and trying to end it. Putting her life on the line, Loughren enters a terrifying world of isolation and distrust until she cracks the case wide open and reveals a shocking cover-up.
